

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Press Contact: Ashley Romano
CXO, Chief Experience Officer
(631) 617-7785

aromano@careritecenters.com
@CareRiteCenters

Communities within the CareRite Centers Network Recognized Among Nation's Best by U.S. News & World Report for 2025

ENGLEWOOD CLIFFS, NJ – CareRite Centers is proud to announce that several of its communities have earned the prestigious designation of Best Nursing Homes for 2025 by U.S. News & World Report. This honor reflects the exceptional care and dedication provided by healthcare professionals across the CareRite Centers network.

The U.S. News & World Report Best Nursing Homes rankings, now in their 15th year, serve as a vital resource for families and individuals in making informed decisions about short-term or long-term care. Of the more than 15,000 nursing homes evaluated across the United States, only 19% were recognized as "Best Nursing Homes" for 2025 in one or more categories: short-term rehabilitation, long-term care, or both.

The following skilled nursing facilities that have earned Best Nursing Home Status within the CareRite Centers Network are:

New York

- Luxor at Mills Pond Rehabilitation and Nursing Center - Suffolk County
- Luxor at Sayville Rehabilitation and Nursing Center - Suffolk County
- Rockville Skilled Nursing and Rehabilitation Center - Rockville Centre
- The Grand Pavilion for Rehabilitation and Nursing at Rockville Centre - Rockville Centre
- The Grove at Valhalla Rehabilitation and Nursing Center - Westchester County

Tennessee

- Bethany Center for Rehabilitation and Healing - Nashville
- Creekside Center for Rehabilitation and Healing - Madison
- Lebanon Center for Rehabilitation and Healing - Lebanon
- Nashville Center for Rehabilitation and Healing - Nashville

Florida

- Palmetto Subacute Care Center - Miami
- The Legacy at Boca Raton Rehabilitation and Nursing Center - Boca Raton

U.S. News and World Report released the breakdown of those awarded as among the nation's best:

"We are incredibly proud to celebrate this remarkable achievement with our teams across the CareRite Network," shared Mark Friedman and Neal Einhorn, Co-Founders and Principals of CareRite Centers. "This recognition is a testament to the outstanding commitment, compassion, and professionalism of our staff. Congratulations to Luxor at Mills Pond, Luxor at Sayville, Rockville, The Grand Pavilion, The Grove, Bethany Center, Creekside Center, Lebanon Center, Nashville Center, Palmetto, and The Legacy for this well-deserved honor!"

For 2025, U.S. News evaluated more than 15,000 nursing homes based on critical factors such as quality of care, safety, staffing, infection rates, and health inspections. This year's rankings also introduced new metrics, including weekend staffing levels and infection rates leading to hospitalizations, reinforcing the emphasis on high-quality, comprehensive care. At CareRite, they are committed to providing continued excellence of care to their residents, families, and communities; this recognition highlights their dedication to making a meaningful difference in the lives of those that they serve.

For more information about CareRite Centers and their mission of providing exceptional care, please visit their website at CareRiteCenters.com.

CareRite Centers, LLC

180 Sylvan Avenue • Suite 4
Englewood Cliffs, NJ 07632

